

JGI, Inc.
ISO9001 : 2015
2020 Quality Policy

We forward to the future with the solution of energy and environmental problem.

We shall contribute to create our future rich and safe society by application of wide experience and offering technical services based on our superior applied earth science techniques.

Basic policy

We establish the next matters as Basic Policy on inflecting with construction of Quality Management System.

1. We comply with a regulation, requirements and company rules.
2. We plan continuous improvements of survey technologies and always aim at the top of the industry.
3. We keep services to meet customer's needs with our active proposals.
4. We order improvement of business operations by our action plan to embody Quality Policy based on quality target and quality accomplishment plan.
In addition, I promise to offer company's resources necessary for the above.
5. We always review Quality Management Systems continuously to improve to satisfy customers in response to social environmental changes.

2020 policy

- We plan to improve current business of petroleum, CCS, disaster prevention and geothermal-related technical services.
- We plan to improve business profit and to aim at gain of our service in offshore.
- We will diversify our business by creating new technology development
- We plan to gain new technologies and improve technologies to meet social environmental changes.
- We shall flexible respond business structure including organizational, financial, human and equipment resources.
- We shall pursuance highly competitive technical services of applied earth science technologies.
- We plan efficiency of duties using numerical indicators.

ABE Susumu
President, JGI, Inc.